

A World in Turmoil

World War I and its Impact on the Jewish World

History | Thought | Reality

Papers presented at an Interdisciplinary International Conference at Efrata College, February 2015

Editors:

Michal Ben-Ya'akov, Ben-Tzion Klibansky and Judith Baumel-Schwartz

Efrata College Press

Jerusalem 2020

Linguistic Editors

Ariel Samuel

Channah Fortgang

English

Shulamit Berman

Managing Editor

Shlomit Zamir

Front cover: Food distribution at the Central Soup Kitchen, Jerusalem,
World War I Courtesy of the Central Zionist Archives, Jerusalem, Zadok Basan
Collection, photo GNZB / 401432.

See Michal Ben Yaakov's article in this volume.

Back cover: Jewish refugees from Poland fleeing the war zone during World War I. Courtesy of the Ghetto Fighters' House, photo archive.

See Ben-Zion Klivansky's article in this volume.

We have done our utmost to locate the copyright holders on all material from outside sources. We apologize for any omission or error, and if brought to our attention we will act to rectify it.

ISSN: 2709-0620

©

All Rights Reserved

Efrata College Press

17 Ben Yefuneh Street, POB 10263, Jerusalem 9110201 ISRAEL

Tel: 972-2-671-7744 Fax: 972-2-673-8660

e-mail: efrata@emef.ac.il

Contents

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| Michal Ben Ya'akovBen-Tzion KlibanskyJudith Baumel-Schwartz | Opening remarks   | 7   |
|   | Eastern Europe   | 11  |
| Ben-Tzion Klibansky   | Transformations in traditional Torah learning among Lithuanian Jews in light of their exile during World War I  | 13  |
| Israel Rozenon  | "Since then Vilna was the Jerusalem of Lithuania, a place of shelter and refuge for every poor wandering refugee" – Vilna in World War I, the diary of Rabbi Yechiel Seroalov | 41  |
| Mali Eisenberg andBoaz Tal                                      | Documentation as a means of resistance – the story of the manuscript that documented the pogroms in Volhynia (autumn 1920)  | 65  |
|   | Eretz-Israel / Palestine   | 89  |
| Michal Ben Ya'akov  | Coping with the War – Struggles and strategies of Jewish women in Eretz-Israel during World War I   | 91  |
| Margalit Shilo  | World War I – An arena for the empowerment of women in the Jewish community in Palestine  | 123 |
|   | Literature and Jewish Thought  | 149 |
| Chanan Yitzchaki  | After the War – Rabbinical responses to a world in flux   | 151 |

|                     |  |     |
|---------------------|--|-----|
| Rut Bitan-Cohen     | "Guerre et Paix" – A book of Hebrew verseby Rabbi Isaac Morali, inspired by WorldWar I | 165 |
| Yizhak S. Recanati  | Pro-Israel , a weekly Zionist magazine inFrench – Catalyst of political activism    | 185 |
|                     | Memory and Education  | 207 |
| Robert (Bob) Chodos | In the trenches – A century later –World War I remains embedded in ourimagination      | V   |
| Jillian Davidson    | Education and Remembrance – Jewishperspectives on World War I                              | XV  |